

Our
CHRISTMAS WISH

THAT YOU WOULD KNOW JESUS!

December 24, 2016

Welcome to Christmas Eve Worship at Vienna Presbyterian

I vividly remember Christmas mornings of my childhood. Running down the stairs, tearing open the presents, rummaging through my stocking hung on the mantle with care... As the morning wound down, thinking, huh... is that it? I was longing for something more. We all long for more, more than gifts and eggnog can fill. Our deepest longings will not be satisfied with the things of this world. Our deepest longings can only be satisfied in God. These longings are God's way of awakening spiritual desire in us. We sing a Christmas carol about God as the "joy of every longing heart." Join us in the New Year as we invite God to satisfy our longing hearts.
- Pete James

Christmas Day Worship, 11am. A Lesson in Carols worship led by Kerry Wilkerson and Danielle Talamantes.

New Year's Day Worship, 9:30 and 11am. Reset and restart in the new year!

Join us in the New Year as we devote five months in 2017 to reading the Gospel of John together. We're not reading the Bible simply for information, so you can identify Mesopotamia on a map or recite the names of the 12 disciples. We read it to become transformed people of faith. Our goal is to explore the difference Jesus can make in our lives in 2017. The Bible is not merely an account of things that happened a long time ago.

It is written for people like us with real life challenges. You will undoubtedly find yourself in this story. John summarizes his gospel this way, "These things are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and through believing you may have life in his name" 20.31.

It's all about real life. What an offer!

Service of Candlelight

Ushers will come forward, taking light from the Christ candle, and will pass it along to the person at the end of each pew. Pass the light down the row, allowing the person with the unlit candle to tilt that candle toward the lit candle.

We will keep the candles lit during the singing of "Silent Night, Holy Night," and will extinguish them during the final hymn.
