Unison Prayer of Confession

David Jordan-Haas

Upon You we call, O God, Who made us and did not forget us, even when we forgot You. We have slid away into material, worldly things; we have sunk into shadows and lost sight of You. Away we have wandered. Yet, like the army official in today's Scripture, we find You and come begging for mercy and healing. Receive us again to Your veryself. Let us not be steeped and fixed in our own lives, O Lover of our souls. Let us find our lives begin again in You, in new and hopeful ways, because of Your always-available, unstoppable love. Amen. Mission and Outreach Updates

Hypothermia Weeks are coming up. Here's what you need to know:

VPC will host two consecutive weeks, January 29-February 12. We will house more guests than we have in the past and anticipate up to 35 visitors each evening.

Volunteers are needed to help prepare and serve hot meals; pack meals to go, welcome our guests, play board/card games, participate in Bible study, or simply watch movies!

A particular need is for those who are willing to serve as Officers of the Day. These volunteers will take turns as the point person for questions, volunteers, etc. from 5:00-9:00pm each evening. Training is provided, and while the role is extremely important (and rewarding!), it is not difficult to serve.

Volunteer spots go fast. To reserve your space, visit viennapres.org/local-events. Have questions? Contact Sue Hamblen sue.hamblen@viennapres.org.

Generosity Feeds: Did you know that 28% of students in Fairfax County struggle with hunger? On Saturday, February 25, we will gather at Cunningham Park Elementary School to package 15,000 meals to be distributed to schools in Vienna. Generosity Feeds, the Christian-based organization that we are teaming with has already provided 2,500 meals to local families in advance of our event!

Update on Christmas giving through Alternative Mart: A most sincere thank-you to each of you who gave of your time to help with the Haiti Alternative Gift Marts this year. For the first time ever, seven area churches participated in this very special event. Some of the churches were large, like Vienna Pres., and some were tiny, like First Presbyterian of Arlington and St. Andrews Presbyterian of Purcellville. Together $28,817 was raised for the work of the Community Coalition for Haiti. People were very concerned about the relief efforts post-Hurricane Matthew and showed it in their willingness to contribute to this ministry. Praise God! A most sincere thank you to each of you.

Special Request from VPC mission partner Community Coalition for Haiti:

Please consider donating a new or slightly used large rolling suitcase. We desperately need suitcases to take materials for the medical and teacher education mission trips. Email Wanda Vander Nat at wevvn@verizon.net to arrange a time and place to leave your donation. Thank you.
