Mission and Outreach Updates

Hypothermia Weeks are coming up. We need volunteers!

VPC will host two consecutive weeks, January 29-February 12. We will house more guests than we have in the past and anticipate up to 35 visitors each evening.

Volunteers are needed to help prepare and serve hot meals; pack meals to go, welcome our guests, play board/card games, participate in Bible study, or simply watch movies!

A particular need is for those who are willing to serve as Officers of the Day. These volunteers will take turns as the point person for questions, volunteers, etc. from 5:00-9:00pm each evening. Training is provided, and while the role is extremely important (and rewarding!), it is not difficult to serve.

To volunteer, visit viennapres.org/local-events.

Have questions? Contact Sue Hamblen sue.hamblen@viennapres.org.

Generosity Feeds: Did you know that 28% of students in Fairfax County struggle with hunger? On Saturday, February 25, we will gather at Cunningham Park Elementary School to package 15,000 meals to be distributed to schools in Vienna. Generosity Feeds, the Christian-based organization that we are teaming with has already provided 2,500 meals to local families in advance of our event!

To register for this event and for additional information, please visit www.generosityfeeds.org/va/vienna/262

Special Request from VPC mission partner Community Coalition for Haiti:

Please consider donating a new or slightly used large rolling suitcase. We desperately need suitcases to take materials for the medical and teacher education mission trips. Email Wanda Vander Nat at wevn@verizon.net to arrange a time and place to leave your donation. Thank you.
