Thank you for joining us today!

If the Easter story is really true, it changes EVERYTHING. If Christ is alive, he has the capacity to impact our ordinary life in wonderfully redemptive ways. The resurrection of Jesus isn't the end of the story...God's story is still unfolding. Our central ambition as believers at Vienna Presbyterian is to connect our story with God's big story. We encourage you to join us this year as we seek to live out God's story in our everyday lives.

Peter James, Pastor

Passports need to be renewed. DMV requires us to renew our driver's licenses. Our lawns need renewal also. Sometimes we need to renew medical prescriptions and personal computers. Does it really seem all that surprising that our souls need renewal also?

RE: New will be our focus for the next six Sundays, beginning Sunday, April 3rd. "Renew us, O Lord. Make your face shine upon us, that we may be saved" (Psalm 80). Join us as we seek to be renewed in faith. We will be utilizing a book called Ready for Revival to aid us in renewal. It's available in our bookstore. Renewal is making space in our lives for God. Join us this April as we Re: New together.

Prayer of Commitment: Lord Jesus, I invite you into my life. I confess that you died for my sins and extend to me the unconditional gift of forgiveness. I endeavor from this moment forward to live for you and follow you as Lord of my life. I trust that you will transform me into the person you want me to become.

Fill me with your Spirit's presence so that I may share this faith and love with other people. I offer this prayer with gratitude in Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture: Luke 24:5b-7

Glenda Simpkins Hoffman

Leader: Why do you look for the living among the dead?
He is not here: He has been raised!

People: Remember what He said to you while He was still in Galilee: "The Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, must be crucified, and must rise on the third day."

All: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Fill in the blanks:

He is _____. He is _____ indeed!

Why didn't the Disciples believe the women when they came back from the tomb?

How would you have reacted after hearing the news from the women?
