Mission and Outreach Updates

Community for Helping Others (CHO) Christmas Store:

The CHO pop-up Christmas Store stocks gifts for children ages infant to preteen. Donations accepted at VPC Today and November 27, Great Hall between worship services; and on Friday, December 9, 9am-noon, by the welcome tables. A corps of volunteers will be on hand to receive all gifts.

Suggested donations include: gift cards (Target and Giant are popular choices); soccer balls, variety of sizes, unisex colors; Legos, variety of ages, from preschool to preteen, mini-figs to building sets; drawing/general art kits—paper, crayons, markers, colored pencils (families appreciate when set comes complete, considering space limitations at home); new jackets and/or gloves/mittens, hats (wildly popular, sizes most needed would be boys 8 through 12). As always, since our parents come to the store to shop, all gifts need to be new and unwrapped, price tags removed.

We are so grateful for the support and generosity of our congregation!

Questions? Rebecca Huffman ghuffman@att.net

Alternative Gift Market:

No need to buy Dad another necktie or Mom more of her favorite fragrance, when you can purchase a goat, a chicken, a scholarship or a handmade craft or jewelry to provide much needed support to our brothers and sisters in developing countries. Make your gift count in a very significant way! VPC's Mission Partners will be in the Great Hall, 9am-12:30pm each Sunday in December leading up to Christmas.

Give something unexpected this Christmas.

Hurricane Matthew Relief Shoebox Effort:

Fill shoeboxes for Haitian children, Sunday, December 11, 3-4pm (in between the Children's Concert and the Messiah Concert). For a list of needed supplies and to sign up to help, visit viennapres.org/local-events
