Alternative Gift Market:

No need to buy Dad another necktie or Mom more of her favorite fragrance when you can purchase a goat, a chicken, a scholarship, or a handmade craft or jewelry to provide much-needed support to our brothers and sisters in developing countries. Make your gift count in a very significant way! VPC's Mission Partner CCH will be in the Great Hall 9am-12:30pm each Sunday in December leading up to Christmas.

Give something unexpected this Christmas.

VPC Missions team is working with the Cunningham Park Elementary School Community to provide mentors to at-risk students. Consider making the difference in a child's life. Contact Sue at sue.hamblen@viennapres.org

Women Who Care: January 8, 5:30-7:30pm, Great Hall. Fellowship, dinner, and hear from our mission partner Five Talents. The Hypothermia Season is again underway in Fairfax County, and our sister churches throughout the community are providing life-saving shelter for those without a place to call home! Our turn is January 29-February 12. Each night, we'll receive up to 30 guests. We will welcome them and provide dinner and breakfast, clothing and other necessary items, and entertainment (games, movies, Bible study, speakers, etc.). MANY helpers will be required to host our brothers and sisters. Please prayerfully consider a commitment to help. A critical need is for individuals that will commit to being the lead on each night. For those who like to delegate, this is a wonderful position, as we'll have volunteers for each of the individual tasks required! Visit viennapres.org right after Christmas for sign-up opportunities. Please contact Sue.hamblen@viennapres.org if you're willing to help lead this wonderful effort!
