"It starts with a ball" ... Did you know that you can use sports as a means of sharing Christ with those around you? The Sports Outreach Institute (SOI) uses sports in such a way. They have a goal of helping the poorest communities around the world to know the love and hope found in a relationship with Jesus Christ. SOI has been operating for 25 years, and has continued to expand through communities in the U.S., Latin America, and Africa. Come be a part of this growing mission!

During the day, you will help to run summer sports programs for children, and you'll engage in other various service ventures as well. Whether you're simply playing, coaching or encouraging, you'll find that sports can be a great means of breaking down relational barriers.

This is your chance to discover how your love of sports can be used by God in ways that you may have never thought about before!

There will be mandatory meetings:

- May 7
- June 11
- June 25

Adult Leaders

Leaders and mentors are needed! You will support our students and participate with them during all activities. You will have opportunities to build meaningful relationships and serve as a model for serving and following Jesus.
